

Short CV – Finn Sivebæk Jensen

Degrees

- MSc (Freshwater biology), Odense University, Denmark (1995).

Positions

- Adviser on Freshwater Fisheries Management, Danish Institute for Fisheries Research (DIFRES)/DTU Aqua, Technical University of Denmark (1997-present).

Short description of expertise

General advisory work to ministries, municipalities, local environmental authorities and several private organizations, stakeholders and end users within the fields of net and rod license funds.

Grants including project management, 2011-present

- Danish Rod and Net Fishing License Funds (1997-present).
- Adviser on freshwater fisheries management.

Memberships of committees, work groups etc., 2011-present

- Board member: Dialog Forum Nissum Fjord.
- Board member: Coordinating group for salmon releases in Western Jutland.

Collaboration with stakeholders, 2011-present

Various consultations with authorities and local environmental authorities, state environmental centres and several private organizations on subjects of international, national or regional interest within the areas of recreational fisheries and fisheries management in fresh- and saltwater.